

ENDORSEMENT	DESCRIPTION	NOTES
H - Hazardous Materials (HME)	If the commercial motor vehicle (CMV) transports hazardous materials, it is required to be placarded under the Hazardous Materials Transportation Act	Re-testing required: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Upon renewal All reinstatements, returning residents or new residents issued a CDL more than 2yrs prior to application Must comply with Patriot Act
N - Cargo Tanker	If the CMV is designed to transport, as its primary cargo, any liquid or gaseous material with a tank permanently or temporarily attached to the vehicle when said tank is designed to carry 1,000 gallons or more	Examples: tractor-tanker, milk truck
X - Haz Mat & Tanker	To operate a tanker transporting hazardous materials	Example: tractor trailer hauling fuel
P - Passenger	If CMV designed to transport 16 or more passengers including the driver. Capacity determined by manufacturer's original design, or the legally modified design, whichever is greater.	Examples: school buses, transit buses (Greyhound, city buses), tour buses, 16 passenger buses (designed to transport 15 + driver). NOTE: DOT medical cards are required for all government employees who have the 'P' or 'H' endorsement.
T - Multiple-Trailer	Class A only: for CMV authorized to pull more than one trailer	Required for double or triple trailers
S - School Bus	If vehicle used as a school bus (designed to pick up and discharge children on public roadways in order to transport them to and from school/ school related activities) . Those who drive students on activity trips using a school bus need the 'S'. MCSIA requirement: the representative vehicle for the school bus test requires a school bus with a capacity for at least 16 passengers. School Bus Mechanics who do not transport students do not need the 'S' endorsement but they must have the 'P' endorsement and a class B license.	Requires <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Form 2-C (or equivalent from private school) and • 5 yr. unrestricted driving experience (school system is responsible for checking record prior to employment)