What is WOTC?

WOTC is a Federal tax credit available to employers who hire and retain individuals from target groups that either meet specific conditions or have been faced with significant barriers to employment.

Employers claim about $1 billion in tax credits each year under the WOTC program.

There is no limit on the number of individuals an employer can hire to claim a possible qualifying tax credit. There are more details on who is eligible and ineligible within this presentation.

Facts About WOTC Tax Credits

- To learn how to use tax credit certifications, please refer to the guidance provided at www.irs.gov, just search for WOTC.
- Excess WOTC Tax Credits can be carried back for one year
- Excess WOTC Tax Credits can be carried forward for up to 20 years, or until the credit is used, whichever occurs first.

Tax-Exempt Employers

- Qualified 501 (c) tax-exempt employers which hire WOTC Qualified Veterans may apply the tax credit against certain payroll taxes.
- 120 to 399 work hours = 16.25% of qualified first-year wages
- 400 + work hours = 26% of qualified first-year wages

4 Easy Steps

Step 1: Complete pages 1 and 2 of the IRS Form 8850 through the WOTC online portal.
